

Personal Information Pledge

There are many reasons why you shouldn't post personal information:

- you never know who is looking at your information
- depending on what you put on there they can access much more information
- in some cases they can even find your phone number
- if not set to private first time on a SMS, anyone can access your profile through google's cached searches

Will I ever publish my personal details on a social networking site?

Yes/ No

If I have already done it will I take them off?

Yes/No

Will I ever give out my personal details on msn?

Yes/No

If someone you don't know asks you for you personal information will you give it them?

Yes/No

Should you accept a friend request without knowing who they are?

Yes/No

Signature

Date